Karen: ready for me to come over?
me: no, much later this afternoon, I'll let you know when I'm ready Karen: OK! love you.
me: love you too, everything's going to be fine, so relax me: I'm probably going to need to quit smoking too, so see if you can pick up some chantix this weekend Karen: OK, it's a prescription so we'll do that when you get here.
me: you didn't need me to go in for it last time, can you just get it for me?
Karen: You DID go in for it last time.
me: I see me: we'll get it later next week, then Karen: That place where you went for your strep throat will give it to you.
me: okay
